

This chart shows the floor plan for the day of the Saint Elizabeth Knights of Columbus Free Throw Championship. There are 8 areas laid out: 1 – Contestant gathering/seating area, 2 – Contestant warm up area, 3 – Spectator seating/standing area, 4-8 Contestant Shooting areas. Upon entering the school there will be two check in table: one for participants who have their entry form and proof of age and the second for new entrants, those who forgot their form and those without proof of age. After you check in the participants will be directed to the Contestant gathering area. Spectator can proceed as far as the spectator area only. All shooting areas will be easily visible to spectators while providing the contestants a safe and distraction free area to compete. If you have any questions contact us at: freethrow@kofc13141.org
